FROM POWER TO SUPREMACY

THE CAPITAL
2

ELON MUSK

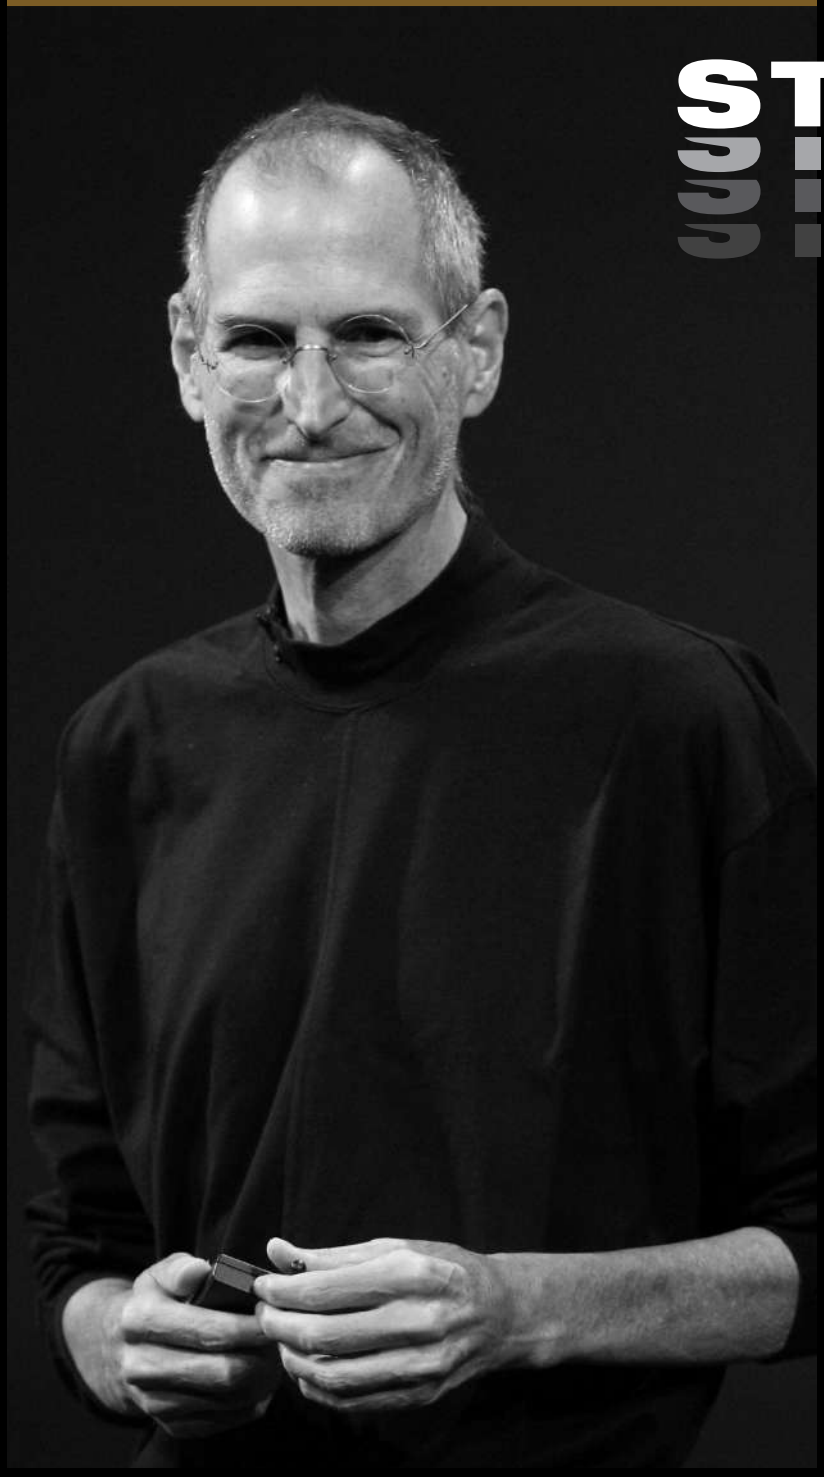

POWER TO DARE

You clearly loved being encircled with full time risks, gambling, and danger.

Despite all, you won.

You preferred failure rather than mediocrity.
You believed ingoing all in.

Permit your office to tackle risks head on, and fear being stuck in mediocrity.*

STEVE JOBS

POWER TO BE VISIONARY

You not only build plans,
but also fuel them with unflinching determination.

Now, allow your corporate office to look into the future and continually maintain a flow of creative ideas.

BILL GATES

POWER TO FOCUS

You indulged yourself into deep thinking.

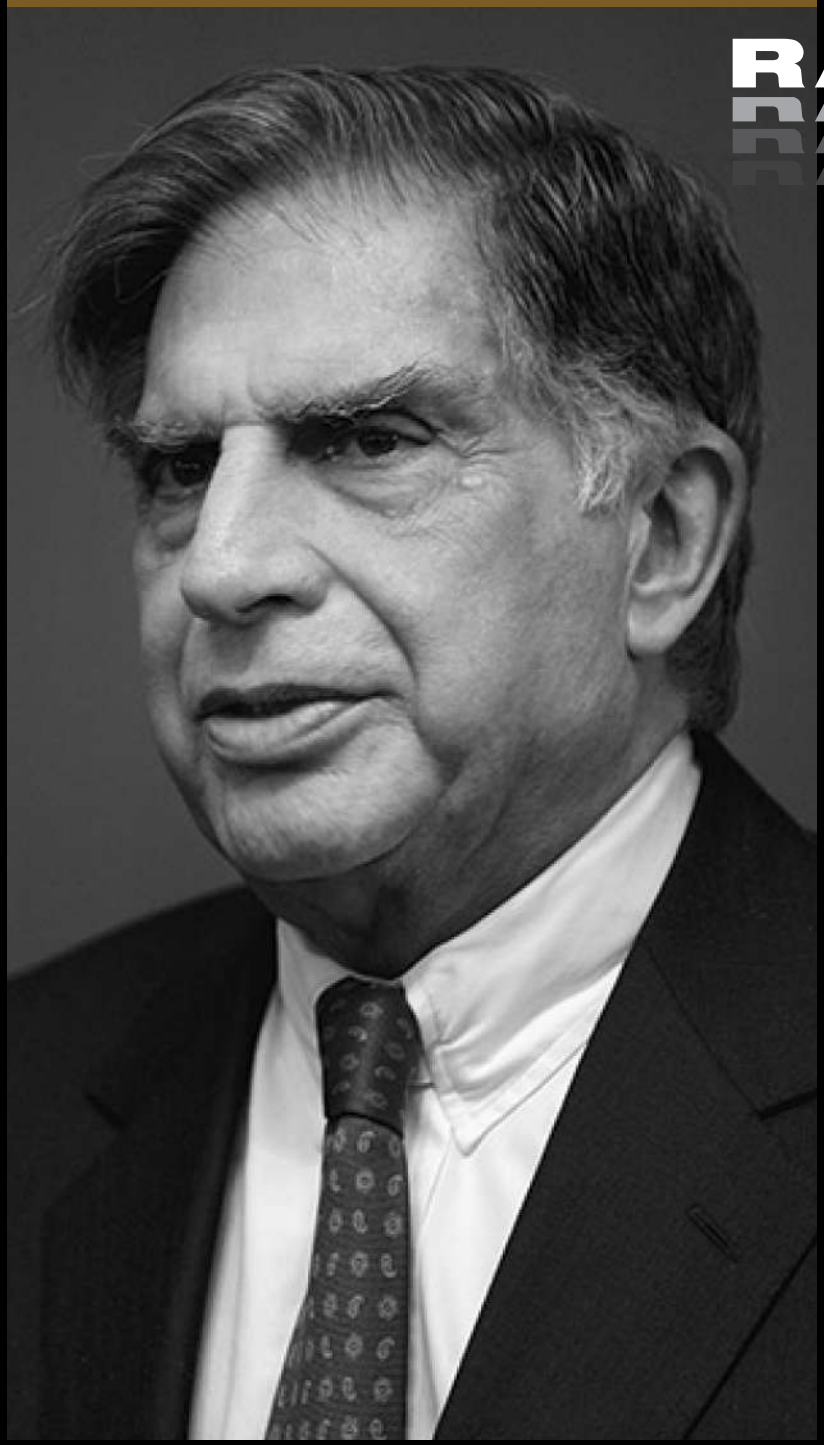

And now qualify the office to follow your lead, setting aside all kinds of distractions and pursue the mastery of a particular subject.

MARK ZUCKERBERG

POWER TO UNIFY

*Let your business take the initiative in building a nation which is unified. Let them take the responsibility in building right relationships and effective communication.

RATAN TATA

POWER TO PERSEVERANCE

You are open to accomodating changes, solving problems as and when they arise and keep challenging yourself working beyond your comfort zone.

*Guide the way for the office to keep going, and continously strive to tap oppurtunities.

WARREN BUFFET

POWER TO FRUGALITY

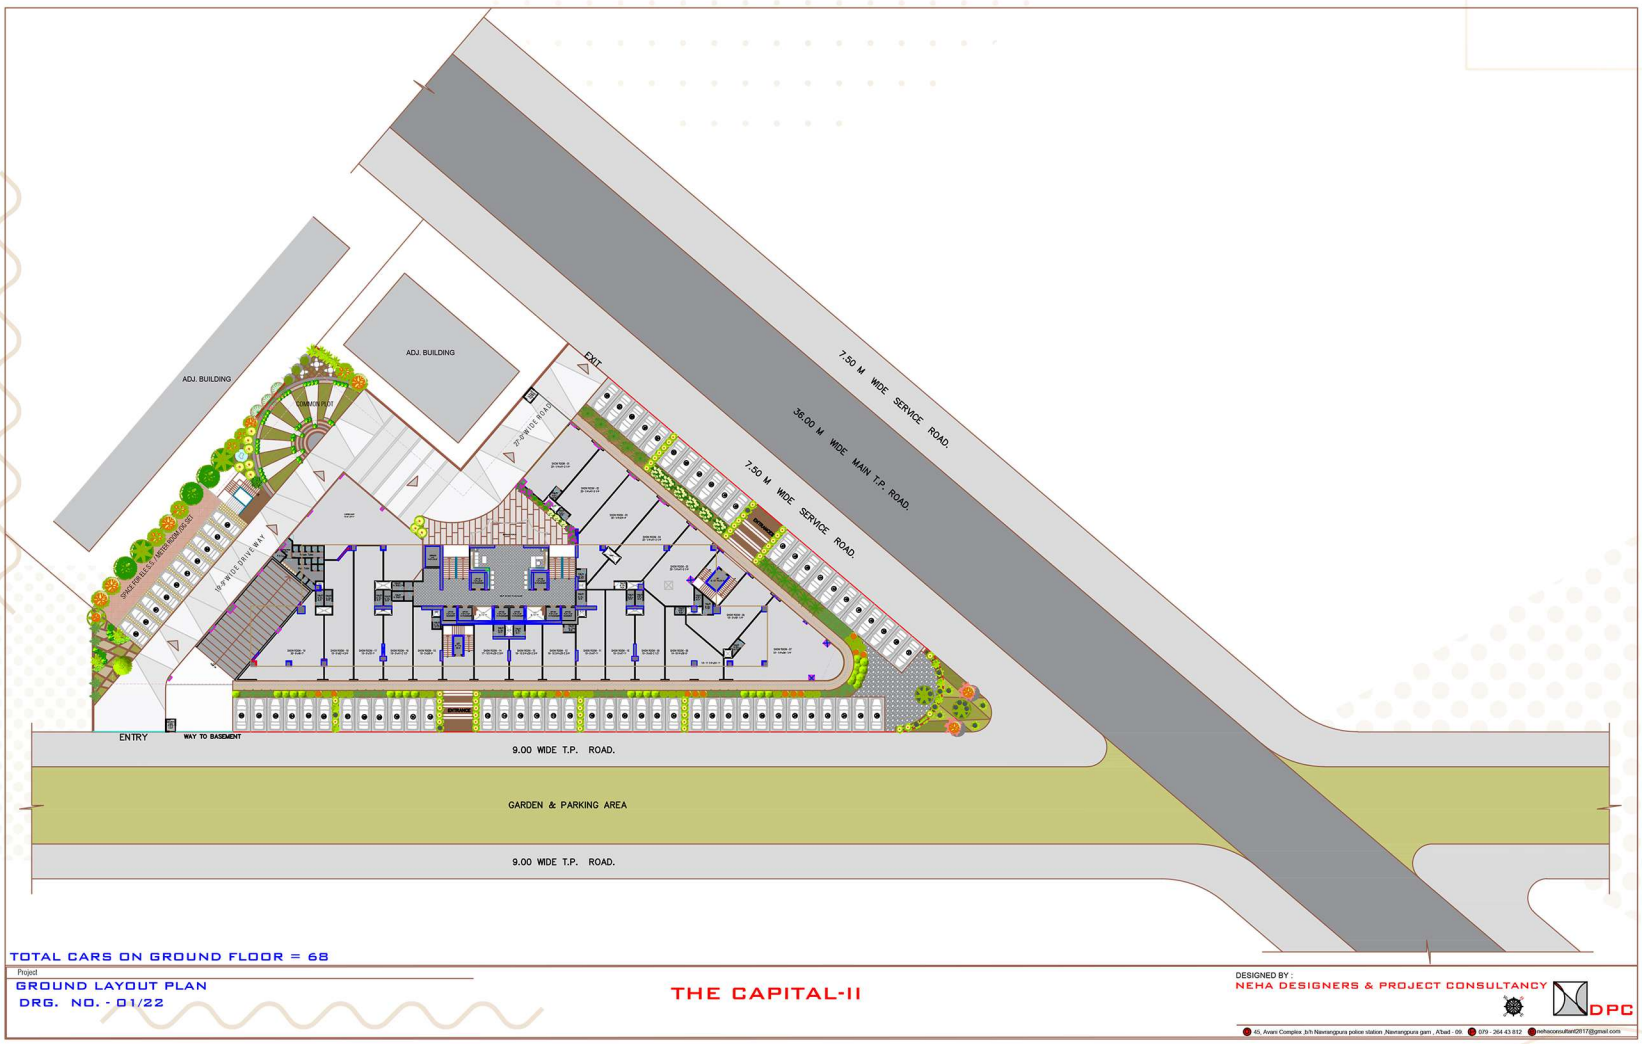

Your simplicity and disregard to any kind of luxuries and extravagant spendings is what makes the way of your life prominent.

Allow your office to work in an economical manner. An office which is efficient and not only effective.
